

American College of Cardiology 2005

International Attendees

ACC '05 is designed to be a truly international event, with presenters from every corner of the globe and international cases incorporated liberally throughout programming.

We encourage international attendees to begin planning their trips early.

Use this page as your resource as you seek visas and plan your travel.

Visa Processing

Visa processing may require long lead times. Please plan accordingly!

For more information on obtaining your visa, visit http://www7.nationalacademies.org/visas/Traveling\_to\_US.html or <http://www.unitedstatesvisas.gov/>.

Letters of Invitation

To request a letter of invitation, call (800) 253-4636, ext. 694, or (301) 897-2694.

Request Letters of Invitation for visa purposes through the ACC Resource Center, (800) 253-4636, ext. 694, or 301-897-2694.

International Associate Members

Cardiologists practicing outside the United States and Canada who join the College as International Associates enjoy reduced registration fees and special rates on educational programs and products.

ACC '05 is the premier CV event of 2005. You'll enjoy —

- presentations by renowned experts
- educational sessions on the most important CV topics
- breaking scientific developments
- the College's unique focus on relevant clinical applications
- an unparalleled Exposition
- unique learning and networking opportunities

New this year -

- more time for Spotlight Sessions on core topics
- an expanded roster of Meet the Experts sessions
- enhanced international scope

Location

It all takes place in one of America's most appealing destinations. Bring the whole family - kids of all ages will enjoy the many attractions of Orlando, Fla.